

Călin-Andrei Stan
Aerial and commercial photography

Hello!

I'm Călin – more like Colin – and I'm in the photography business for over 14 years. Along this time I've started and developed ClubulFoto.com, the biggest photography website in Romania. It's an online photography magazine targeting enthusiasts and pro's alike, which has over 55.000 readers per month. ClubulFoto.com is online since 2010 and still rolling.

I'm a professional photographer with a photo business in commercial and corporate event photography, also focusing on aerial photo and movie making for advertising, corporations, hotels, restaurants and real-estate clients. You can see my portfolio on CalinStan.com and TheDrone.ro project.

I've made photography a way of life, and since the beginning of 2017 I'm also a proud photographer for National Geographic and National Geographic Traveler Romania.

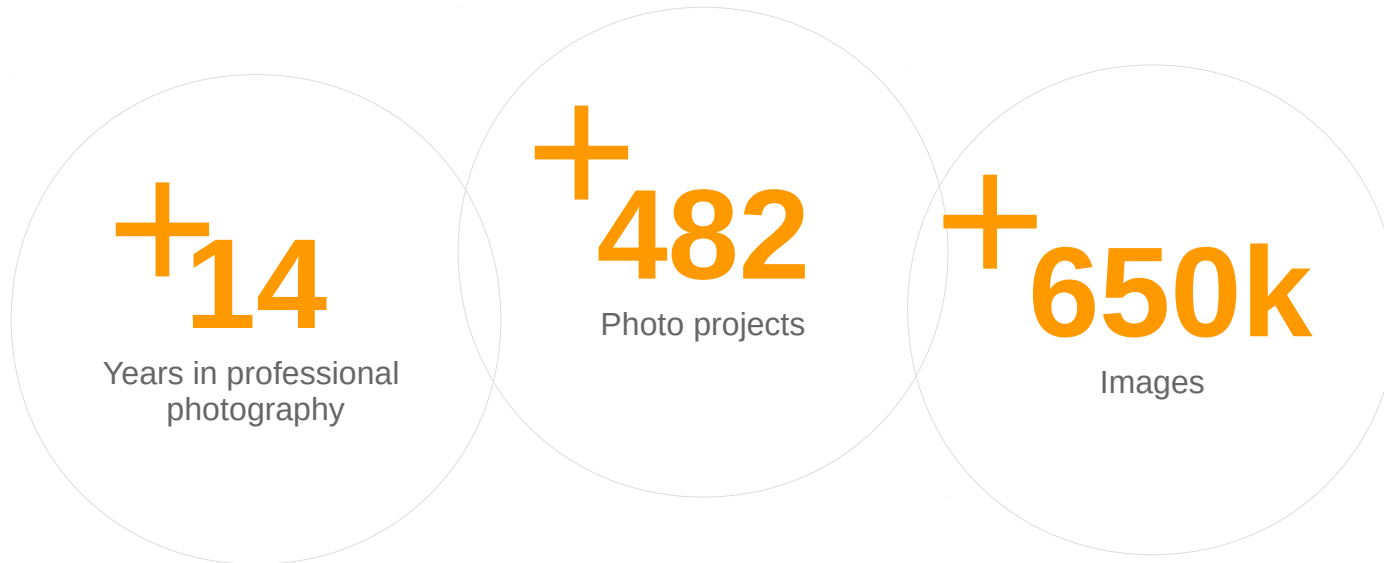

My happy clients

I'm working with advertising agencies, travel & leisure companies, online and offline stores, hotels & restaurants and also real-estate companies and local representatives of international car manufacturers. Some of my clients are:
